Biography

Don Martin, GRI

Since becoming licensed in 1979, Don has been involved in all aspects of the real estate business. He has been the designated broker of his own successful company and of an ultra large company of over 1,100 agents.

Don is past president of both a local and state association, and has been a member of numerous REALTOR® association committees and work groups over a span of 30 years. He is a former REALTOR® of the Year at three different associations. He was honored by the Arizona Association of REALTORS® with the Distinguished Service Award in 2009.

Don is also a national real estate educator, an Arizona GRI faculty member and a facilitator for the NAR REALTOR® Leadership Program. He has trained hundreds of REALTORS® on ethics and professional standards, contracts, fair housing, agency, and other risk management topics.

He is also a certified mediator, professional standards consultant, and expert witness on broker standard of care and procuring cause issues.
