Biography

Kelly Soriano has just celebrated her 20th year in the real estate industry. Her career pivoted in 2005 when she became the designated broker of Mountain Sage Realty and an ADRE approved real estate instructor. In 2009 Kelly became the Owner/Designated Broker of Mountain Sage Realty and serves on the Board of Directors for the Arizona REALTORS® as well as the local WeSERV.

She serves locally on both the RAPAC and Professional Development Committees, and served as chair of the SEVRAR Professional Development Committee in 2019.

Kelly also holds a Broker's License in the state of Virginia, where she serves on the Virginia State Professional Development Committee.

Kelly's passion is real estate instruction. She loves giving the public as well as her clients and her students a foundation to understand why real estate is so important and why everyone should be investing in it. She currently is approved to teach all Arizona continuing education subject categories, as well as Pre-Licensing and Pre-Broker licensing and Transaction Desk. She is also an approved GRI instructor for The Contract Class.

Kelly is proud to be a RAPAC Major Investor & President's Circle Member, standing up for homeowner rights and our profession.

In her down time, of which there isn't much, she enjoys spending time with her husband and family and traveling. She and her husband have one son and three fur kids.

Please call Kelly for any further details. She looks forward to helping others grow their business & improving our real estate profession.
