Biography

Laura recently retired from REALTOR® Association Administration, holding the position of Assistant Executive Officer and Director of Education for the Scottsdale Area Association of REALTORS for 8 years, and had also spent 3 years as the Curriculum Specialist and Trainer for the Arizona Association of REALTORS®. Prior to working for the Associations, she spent 15 years with Realty Executives Relocation & Referral Services in an Executive position and as a Designated Broker.

Earlier in her career, Laura was an active salesperson and manager for several other local companies. Always active in community and industry service, Laura has served on as Chair of the Arizona Association of REALTORS® Professional Development Committee several times, and has remained active on the committee as well as the GRI and other task forces. She has served as a local, state and national director and Executive Committee Member, and continues to serve and support several committees at the state and local level.

She was also a past local chapter and state President as well as National Governor for the Women's Council of REALTORS®. She has been an approved instructor for licensing and continuing education for over twenty years. In addition to GRI, she is also an NAR/REBAC certified instructor and is certified to teach the AHWD Certification and SRES Designation Course among others. She is also a REBI/CRB Instructor.

She is passionate about improving the quality and delivery of real estate education and the development of great real estate instructors. She is originally from Chicago, Illinois, and enjoys traveling and spending time with friends and visiting her family who are located all over the United States.
